Salary Range: $58,000-63,000/year
Job Opening Date: Summer 2024

Position Summary:
The Program Manager/Lead Therapist is responsible for providing clinical supervision to select ChildSafe therapists and clinical interns, direct therapy, and engaging in program development to move our mission forward. The position is crucial in enabling ChildSafe to accomplish its mission to break the cycle and heal the childhood trauma resulting from abuse and neglect with specialized treatment, education and community outreach.

Essential Job Functions:

- Manage the ChildSafe office in Loveland, including supervising the daily staff.
- As a member of the ChildSafe management team, coordinate program services and operations in the Loveland Office to maintain continuity with the overall mission and values of ChildSafe as a whole.
- Maintain a caseload of 10-15 clients and 10-15 direct service hours.
- Conduct consultations with new therapy clients, providing initial intake evaluations and assessments for victims/survivors in order to determine readiness for individual, family, and/or group counseling.
- Develop treatment plans for clients, as well as review and approve treatment plans developed by unlicensed supervisees.
- Make appropriate, culturally responsive diagnostic determinations according to the DSM-5.
- Provide individual, family, and group counseling to primary and secondary survivors.
- Teach and coordinate the trauma-informed parenting classes, including training new therapists who can facilitate classes.
- Enforce and abide by ChildSafe Colorado policies and all ethical and legal guidelines related to the provision of clinical services per Colorado Law, HIPAA, and codes of ethics governed by your professional organization(s).
- Debrief with-clinical staff and interns on client cases as needed.
• Provide input on mandated reporting situations.
• Assist other therapists and staff with crisis intervention and risk assessments/safety planning as needed.
• Promote and model healthy self-care and work-life balance.
• Assist with client referrals, return phone calls, conduct intake interviews, give Victim’s Compensation information and assistance and assign cases to the appropriate therapist.
• Follow up on clients through daily supervision, consultation and training of ongoing assigned therapists and clinical interns.
• Meet weekly or upon request with supervisees in order to track cases and assist with treatment planning and implementation.
• Be available by phone or special appointment to assist therapists with emergencies and other problems concerning their cases.
• Assist clients with finding funding sources for victim services.
• Attend case coordination on cases when complications arise.
• Provide crisis intervention to new referrals and telephone consultation to victims and other professionals regarding reporting procedures and available resources.
• Train graduate student interns as well as externs and meet with them weekly to provide supervision.
• Allow student interns to shadow on selected cases for hands-on instruction.
• Coordinate with referral agencies regarding referral procedures.
• Network with other agencies that provide victim services or investigate abuse to facilitate the coordination of services and ensure the effectiveness of interventions.
• Conduct outreach into the community to disperse information about the agency’s mission, services and referral procedures.
• Assist clients with finding funding sources for victim services.
• Attend regularly scheduled staff and clinical team meetings.
• Enter updated data for the clinical database.
• Facilitate the collection of Outcome Measurements.
• Available to clients who are not satisfied with their therapist and/or the services they are receiving in order to problem solve or make referrals if a solution cannot be found.
• Assist with fundraising events as needed.
• Act as the daily point of contact for management and facility issues in the Loveland office. This may include administrative staff direction and other office needs.

Additional Job Functions:
• Attend regularly scheduled staff and clinical team meetings.
• Enter updated data for the clinical database.
• Facilitate the collection of Outcome Measurements.
• Available to clients who are not satisfied with their therapist and/or the services they are receiving in order to problem solve or make referrals if a solution cannot be found.
